SEPTEMBER 8 → Scripture Segment: 1 John 1:1 – 2:11

- A. In 1 John 1:1-4, how does the author describe what he intends to convey to the community of believers?

- B. Who is Jesus according to the author's description in the whole segment? (Identity of Jesus)

- C. When the author says, "living in the light" or "walking in the light" (1:5-2:11), what is the author intending to say?

- D. So, how should we be living as children of God? (Our Personal & Community Identity as Children of God).
 - a. Is it easy or a struggle ?
 - b. Talk about how that may be the case. Use examples to illustrate /explain .
 - c. Are you going to take the step to trust God to help you live as His child?

Practical Application – Living out our identity as children of God & Living in the light of God:

Consider how we can practice living in the light of God with our family, neighbors, and friends.

As you do, think about how this may have been challenging or helped you.

Pray about what you can share when you gather the next week with your group.
